Fifth Third Bank Future Leader Day – Wednesday, April 2nd 2014

This is your chance to learn more about Fifth Third Bank and the exciting opportunities available within our Leadership Programs for 2015. Get a glimpse into what it's like to be a future leader at Fifth Third Bank. This is an invitation only event and a limited number of candidates will be chosen, so apply now!

Participants in Fifth Third Bank's Future Leader Day event will have the opportunity to:

- Tour our downtown Cincinnati Corporate Headquarters as well as the George A. Schaefer, Jr. Madisonville Operations Center.
- Meet current Leadership Program Participants and learn about their experiences in our programs.
- Network with managers and directors at the Bank from each of the seven different lines of business that offer leadership programs.
- Hear from top executives at the Bank who champion the Leadership Programs.
- Be paired with a current Leadership Program Participant.

This year's Future Leader Day will be held on Wednesday, April 2nd from 8:00am – 3:30pm. Fifth Third will cover travel expenses for those selected to participate in the event.

What are the Fifth Third Bank Leadership Programs?
The Fifth Third Bank Leadership Programs (LPs) are designed to provide meaningful work experience with targeted educational experiences to develop future organizational leaders. The Bank has seven different areas of business that offer Leadership Program opportunities on a full-time and summer internship basis, including: Audit (Finance and IT specializations), Commercial Banking, Consumer Banking, Finance & Accounting, Information Technology, Investment Advisors, and Operations. Please visit college.53.com to learn more about the Fifth Third Bank Leadership Programs.

Who should apply for Future Leader Day?
Current sophomore or junior students with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above who are pursuing an undergraduate degree in Accounting, Finance, Economics, Entrepreneurship, Operations, Management, Marketing, Management Information Systems, Computer Science, Informatics or other business-related majors. Students should display an orientation for success through extracurricular activities, internship or work experience.

When is the Application Deadline?
To apply for consideration, please submit your resume to this posting by Friday, February 7th. Fifth Third Bank's Future Leader Day is an invitation-only event. Invitations will be extended in late February and early March to selected students.

Don't miss out on your opportunity to preview Fifth Third Bank and engage in networking with our management team and current Leadership Program Participants prior to the fall campus recruiting season!
