GRADUATE PROGRAMS • INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION

WELCOME TO XAVIER UNIVERSITY

As an international graduate student, you are very important to us. Xavier is committed to creating a diverse, culturally rich campus where all students feel welcome. International students are attracted to Xavier because of the personal attention they receive throughout their time at the University. Students can pursue master's degree programs and have a variety of options in Xavier's English as a Second Language (ESL) program.

Xavier continuously hosts international students from all over the globe. International graduates contribute intellectual, cultural and religious diversity to the Jesuit, Catholic tradition of Xavier. After their time of study, many international students have gone on to successful careers both in the USA and in their home countries.

Programs and services for international students include orientation, immigration advising and personal assistance. Also provided are a variety of cultural programs and activities for students and faculty throughout the year. These include weekly coffee hours and the annual International Fair. The Office of International Student Services also provides a variety of support services and resources for international students, ranging from listings of housing options for international students to arranging for airport pick-ups at the beginning of the semester.

Xavier's campus is located in a residential area of Cincinnati, Ohio, a beautiful, historic city of nearly 2 million people located on the banks of the Ohio River. Cincinnati's size offers the cultural attractions and business resources of a large city, but with the friendliness of a smaller town. For a virtual tour of the campus and the surrounding city of Cincinnati, go to the Xavier web site at www.xavier.edu/virtual\_tour.
