

XAVIER UNIVERSITY

AN EXCITING MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE PROGRAM FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOL EDUCATORS

Sponsored By Xavier's Center for Catholic Education,
School of Education, the College of Social Sciences, Health, and Education and the Office of Graduate Services

A limited cohort of Catholic school teachers and administrators is forming to begin a Master of Education Degree during the Spring 2011 semester. The first 12 semester hours of the 30 semester hour program will be offered at Notre Dame Academy (Park Hills, Kentucky) with the balance of program's course work being completed on Xavier's campus. This special cohort will receive a $288 discount per credit hour for core courses taken at Notre Dame Academy, a special Catholic teacher rate on campus, and the last course in the program being free of charge.

Courses offered at Notre Dame Academy (All with special emphasis on Catholic Education):

EDMS 500:	History and Philosophy of Education	3 sem hrs	offered at	$227/cr
EDFD 503:	Advanced Educational Psychology	3 sem hrs	offered at	$227/cr
EDFD 505:	Educational Administration	3 sem hrs	offered at	$227/cr
EDFD 507:	Educational Research	2 sem hrs	offered at	$227/cr
EDFD 508:	Educational Research Paper	1 sem hr	offered at	$227/cr

Additional Concentration and Electives Taken at Xavier	15 sem hrs	offered at	$327/cr
Last course (concentration/elective) in your program	3 sem hrs	offered at	free

Concentrations can be selected from Elementary Education, Secondary Education, or School Administration, Reading, Children's Literature, Multi-Cultural Literature, and Special Education.

An information session/registration meeting is planned for Thursday, December 9, 2010 at 4:30pm on Xavier's campus. Classes for this cohort will be held on Thursdays beginning January 13, 2011 at Notre Dame Academy. Participants will take two classes: 4:15pm and 7:00pm.

To reserve your place at the information session please contact
Office of Graduate Services
513-745-3360