FAQ Greece Study Abroad

What classes can I take?

Either a 200 or 300 level Theology, depending on your need; a fine-arts course (Greek Art, Architecture, and Culture), social science (CLAS 261, Greek Archaeology), or Lit & Moral (205). All study abroad students take two courses.

Do I have to be an Honors student?

No, but we can accommodate honors needs. Students from all three college participate in the Greece program.

Do I have to know Greek?

No. You'll learn a few phrases but you do not need to know Greek.

What is included for the price?

The estimated cost of $5800.00 covers everything but airfare to and from Greece; breakfast and dinner is covered each day, the hotels we stay at in and out of Athens, all public and private transportation in Greece (metro passes, private buses from city to city), all museum and site admission fees, and the cost of the two classes at summer tuition rates. The only other cost to you is the airfare. Students usually fly round trip to and from Greece with one of the professors; if you make other arrangements, you need to be at the airport with the main group arrives if you want to make use of the private transport included in the price.

When do I need to deposit?

This will be announced at the information sessions, which will take place through the end of October.

When do I need to pay in full?

This will be announced in November; deposits are being accepted now.

Do I need travel insurance?

This is something you would purchase on your own, and it is entirely your call whether or not to have it. Most travel agencies recommend travel insurance for any expensive travel plans. I have never purchased it myself and most students do not because they have no intention of not going on the trip; but some students do purchase insurance as a precaution against unforeseen events that might cause them to back out of the trip. Mary Anne at Victoria Travel (who arranges our flights to and from Greece, 871-1100) would probably be able to help you, or any private agent (AAA is another likely place for travel insurance).
