Genres in Digital Media

A category of artistic composition, characterized by similarities in form, style, or subject.

Digital genres include, but are not limited to GIFs (Graphics Interchange Format), videos, e-portfolios, blogs, and memes.

Digital genres may entail many sub (or lesser) genres as well. Memes will act as an example.

IRL
(in real life)
memes outside of digital mediums
e.g. Frodo Lives

Image Macros
Pictures given new contexts with text e.g. Willy Wonka

Comic drawn
e.g. Trollface

Photoshop
Pictures remixed with photo editing
e.g. Pepper Spray Cop

Content collected and designed by Corbin McLean (2017)