Why choose the Intensive English Program at Xavier University?

OUR PROGRAM

More than 45 years of excellence: The Intensive English program was established in 1970 on the campus of Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio, in the United States.

CEA Accreditation: The Intensive English Program is accredited by CEA, the Commission on English Language Program Accreditation.

Strong Student Outcomes: Students who successfully complete the Advanced level (with grades of B or higher) are eligible to waive the standardized English test requirements for undergraduate admission to Xavier (for the bachelor’s degree).

Scholarship Opportunities: Students who complete the advanced level of the Intensive English Program can compete for the International Ambassador scholarship program. Students who are selected receive half-tuition scholarships for the bachelor’s degree.

OUR UNIVERSITY

Long History: Xavier University was established in 1831 and is part of a network of Jesuit Universities in the United States. It is the 4th-oldest Jesuit University in the United States.

Rankings:
- Ranked one of the top ten regional universities in the Midwest for the past 20 years – U.S. News & World Report
- Listed among America’s Top Colleges for 2015 – Forbes Magazine
- Named one of 300 “Best Value” universities in the country – Kiplinger’s Personal Finance
- MBA program is included in “The Best 296 Business Schools” for 2015 – The Princeton Review

Beautiful Campus: Students in the Intensive English Program have classes in the same buildings as other Xavier students, on the beautiful, park-like university campus. International students at Xavier have full access to campus facilities, including libraries, computer labs, dining services and recreational facilities.

International Student Services: Students can find a warm welcome and a ‘home away from home’ at the Center for International Education. Cultural advising, orientation programs and social activities are just a few of the programs offered at the CIE.

OUR LOCATION

The City of Cincinnati: The cultural attractions of a large city and the friendliness of a smaller town: That’s what visitors find when they arrive in Cincinnati. Professional sports teams, music, art, and a vibrant restaurant scene are all nearby. There are more Fortune 500 companies per capita in Cincinnati than in Los Angeles, New York, or Chicago.

Nearby Cities: Several major cities in the United States are not far—in fact, 60% of the US population is within 500 miles of Cincinnati. The Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG) offers nearly 200 daily departures and non-stop service to several international destinations.
