Internships and Volunteer Opportunities

Over the course of the academic year, watch for emails to your Xavier mail that will provide internships and volunteer opportunities at various facilities that may interest you. Most students will doing their internship hours related to the Internship Prep class in between their junior and senior academic years. Many students enjoy the chance to learn more about their desired field through volunteering. We have had BSHSA alumni provide leads and welcome the information to help the next group of students secure the experience.
