Join The Center for Holocaust and Humanity Education and Xavier’s Eigel Center for Community-Engaged Learning in welcoming former White House Fellow, Mark Hanis, a “serial” social entrepreneur who leverages innovative solutions to address issues of injustice on Tuesday, February 24th at 7:00pm in the Gallagher Student Center Theater. The event is free for Xavier students, faculty, and staff. For more information (see handout) and to reserve your seat, please visit the Eigel Center website: www.xavier.edu/eigelcenter/

Two first year students, Amir Davis and Khaliyah Reed, were awarded early the prestigious Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship to Study Abroad in summer 2015. Both will participate in IES Abroad’s Chinese language immersion program in Beijing, China. For the complete press release, please click here.

On Thursday, March 19, 2015, from 6:00pm to 9:00pm, join the Multicultural, Gender, and Women’s Center and the Center for International Education for the International Women’s Day Dinner in Cintas Center. International Women’s Day is observed globally as a day to celebrate the achievements of women and to promote equity for women and girls. The theme for Xavier’s IWD dinner is to explore women’s empowerment across different cultures and generations. There will be three panelists sharing their stories of how woman’s wisdom is discussed and viewed in their respective cultures. Following the panel will be time for facilitated table conversations. To register, please visit: http://www.xavier.edu/gender-diversity/Womens-Day-Dinner.cfm
