Join Xavier Professor Laney Bender-Slack and Mario Granda, professor from Universidad Antonio Ruiz de Montoya in Peru, and students during a synchronous class session to observe a Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) course on Monday, February 16, 2015 from 5:30pm to 6:30pm in CLC 404. This unique opportunity brings two Jesuit universities, two professors, and two courses together to allow for students to engage in meaningful interaction and reflection between the two cultures. If you are interested in learning more about COIL, join the observation to see how it all works!

Professor Hsing-Yi Kao and Fulbright Scholar Tina Wu will host a Chinese New Year Celebration on Tuesday, February 17, 2015, at 6:00pm in Schott Hall, 10th Floor. Celebrate the Year of the Goat with food, friends, and fun games!

Encourage students to attend Cross-Cultural Dating on Thursday, February 19, 2015, in the GSC Clocktower Lounge from 3:00pm to 5:00pm. Students will discuss the cultural differences and the stereotypes of dating in the United States, ways to say “No.”, share safe dating practices, and learn about sexual harassment resources available to all. Snacks will be provided. This program is cosponsored by Center for International Education, Title IX Office, and Women of Excellence. Help us spread the word by posting this flyer in your area or on Canvas!

Take a trip around the globe Friday, February 20, 2015, at 4:00pm in Kennedy Auditorium as the 2013-2014 Brueggeman Fellows present their research travel projects and experiences. Countries the Fellows visited include: Sweden, South Africa, Benin, England, India, Japan, and South East Asia. For more information on their research topics, see the attached flyer.
