Call for Faculty-led Program Photos!
The Center for Education would love to see and share your program photos from this year (2014-2015)! Not only is this an opportunity for extra program marketing, but it will also help the university as a whole show our international story! Please send all photos to LeeAnn Scherbauer at scherbauerl@xavier.edu. We look forward to seeing all of your journeys!

Social Media
See the above photos post and connect with us on social media!

India’s #1 Bollywood Singer Is Coming to Cincinnati
Shreya Ghoshal will be performing in Cincinnati at the Aronoff Center on Friday, July 24, 2015 at 8pm. If you appreciate diversity, different cultural events, want to witness one of the world’s very best Non-Western yet very cool and modern singers, and learn more about the South Asian culture, we invite you to attend this event. For more information about tickets, click here.

USAC Visiting Professor Application Now Available
Teach abroad with USAC during 2017-2018! Professors from University Studies Abroad Consortium (USAC) Affiliate Universities have the unique opportunity to support the USAC mission and internationalize their home universities by teaching abroad. Visiting Professors establish contacts with foreign colleagues, enhance their own foreign language acquisition, strengthen and support international education and study abroad on campus, diversify course curriculum, and develop international relationships for research and other purposes. The application is due December 1, 2015. Please contact the Center for International Education at international@xavier.edu for access to the application.

Application Deadline Approaching for 2016-2017 Fulbright US Scholar Program
The Fulbright Scholar Program offers teaching, research, or combination awards in over 125 countries for the 2016-2017 academic year. There are several new program models designed to meet the changing needs of US academics and professions. Therefore, Fulbright is offering more opportunities for flexible, multi-country grants through enhanced global and regional awards.

Interested faculty and professionals are encouraged to learn more about the nearly 600 core Fulbright US Scholar opportunities in a wide range of disciplines by visiting the online Catalog of Awards, browsing the regional or discipline highlights, or by participating in one of Fulbright’s webinars, including regional virtual advising sessions to help demystify the application process and answer any other pressing questions applicants may have.

The application deadline for most awards is August 3, 2015. For eligibility requirements and other program information, please visit Fulbright’s website.
Journal of Studies in International Education

Access the most recent issues of the Journal of Studies in International Education. The issue includes the following articles:

- Surfing USA: How Internet Use Prior to and during Study Abroad Affects Chinese Students’ Stress, Integration, and Cultural Learning while in the United States.
- Exploring the Process of Global Citizen Learning and the Student Mind-Set.
- Policy Responses to Address Student “Brain Drain”: An Assessment of Measures Intended to Reduce the Emigration of Singaporean International Students.

Click here to access the articles.

Opportunities to Host Overnights or Dinners for International Visitors!

Host Japanese Students July 31st-August 2nd!
The Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council is working with Ohio University to place 21 Japanese students with hosts for the weekend of July 31-August 2, 2015. The students will be with you all weekend and it’s up to you to show them what you think is BEST about the region! The students are 15 to 17 years old and are studying English as a second language at Ohio University. Visiting with host families is one way that the students will be immersed in the American culture. The council looks for families willing to host two or more students, but other arrangements can be made. Volunteers should be interested in meeting the students and learning about their country and their views, and in sharing their own perspectives and interests with the visitors. Contact Michelle Harpenau to host or discuss hosting at mharpenau@cincyworldaffairs.org or 859-448-8984.

Additional Opportunities to Invoke the Citizen Diplomat within You!

Two visitors from Gambia under the US Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program entitled “Access for All: Enhancing Lives of People with Disabilities” will be in Cincinnati. There is an opportunity to host them in your home overnight on July 25th. GCWAC is looking for someone to commit to being back up host for this visit.

Four visitors from Azerbaijan under the US Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program entitled “Innovative Museum Management in the US” will be in Cincinnati. There is an opportunity to host all or half of the group for dinner in your home on one of the following evenings: July 27th or 28th. The visitors will be accompanied by 2 interpreters.

Six visitors from around the world under the US Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program entitled “Trafficking in Persons (TIP) Heroes” will be in Cincinnati. There is an opportunity to host all or half the group on Saturday, August 1st. Each visitor is from a different country & will be accompanied by an interpreter (total 6 interpreters).