WE WELCOME NEW MHSA FACULTY MEMBERS

Please join us in welcoming two persons on our fulltime MHSA faculty:

Dr. France Weaver will be teaching Health Economics and Health Policy and will join our faculty for the fall term 2017.

Dr. Weaver comes to us from James Madison University in Harrisonburg VA where she is an assistant professor in the Health Services Administration program. Prior to that she held research positions at the School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University in Bloomington IN, at the Swiss Health Observatory, at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) in Washington DC, and in the Department of Health Policy and Administration, School of Public Health, UNC Chapel Hill. She has also held teaching positions at the Geneva School of Economics and Management at the University of Geneva, Switzerland and at Penn State University.

Dr. Weaver has taught a broad array of graduate, undergraduate and online courses, and has experience mentoring students in PhD work, in graduate studies, and in undergraduate advising. France (pronounced Frawns) has numerous publications, scholarly writing, and presentations in the USA and in Europe. Dr. Weaver has a PhD in Health Policy and Administration with a concentration in Health Economics from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, a MS degree in Economics from the University of Lausanne, Switzerland, and a BS in Economics from the University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland. France and her husband Bryce look forward to moving here.

Mr. Dwight “Dee” Ellingwood will be teaching the Management, Strategy, and Capstone courses and he will join our faculty for the fall term 2017.

Mr. Ellingwood is a well-known and experienced health services executive, as he has been the Senior Vice President of Strategy, Communications and Public Affairs at TriHealth, Cincinnati, the Lead Executive for the Collective Impact on Health at The Health Collaborative, Cincinnati, a Senior Vice President for Planning and Business Development at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital and Medical Center, and a Vice President for Network Development at CHRISTUS Spohn Health System in Corpus Christi TX. He has served as an adjunct professor at Texas A&M University in Corpus Christi TX.

Dee has extensive community service at several organizations, including Meridian Biosciences Inc, Tennis for Charity, Xcelerated Learning Dynamics, HealthBridge, Greater Cincinnati Health Council, Ohio Children’s Hospital Association, and Hoxworth Blood Center.

Mr. Ellingwood has MS and BS degrees in Economics from the University of Utah in Salt Lake City UT. In 2010 Mr. Ellingwood received our MHSA “Preceptor of the Year” award in recognition of his outstanding service as a preceptor to administrative residents at CCHMC. He and his wife KayCee enjoy their family and traveling.
