SUBJECT: Policy Letter 2-1 Cadet Code of Conduct

1. All Cadets in the Xavier University "All For One" Battalion adhere to the Code Of Conduct outlined in this policy letter. The Cadet Code of Conduct states that each Cadet must demonstrate behavior consistent with the standards expected of a future US Army Officer.
2. As an "All For One" Cadet, you live by the university Standards of Student Conduct. As such, your behavior reflects the values of respect for self, fellow students and Cadets, the University, and the "All for One" Battalion.
3. As a member of the "All for One" Battalion you do not lie, cheat, steal nor tolerate anyone that does. It is your duty to report any Cadet that is in violation of this policy.

You have a responsibility to the Corps of Cadets to uphold the highest ethical conduct, which promotes respect for self, respect for others, respect for authority, and respect for property, honesty and integrity.
5. As a future leader in the United States Army understand that you are being held to a higher standard than the normal student body. Strive to live and embody the seven Army values of Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity and Personal Courage. Conduct yourself according to the values within the University Mission Statement, abide by the University policies and procedures and obey laws enacted by the federal, state, and local governments. You will lead by example.
