The Law School Admission Council's DiscoverLaw.org PLUS Programs are targeted at but not restricted to college students from racial and ethnic minority groups underrepresented in the legal profession. The programs are designed for students in the first two years of college and preference will be given to students who have registered for DiscoverLaw.org.

The four-week programs provide an intense focus on the skills required to succeed in law school, the law school admission process, and legal career opportunities. Interested students should contact the three schools directly for application information including deadlines and selection criteria.
