

How Do I Join the Ohio Classical Conference?

Please Detach the form and mail to:

Dr. Shannon Byrne
Xavier University
Classics Department
3800 Victory Parkway
Cincinnati, Ohio 45207-5181

Name: _____

Address:

Telephone:

E-Mail:

School or University:

Regular Membership: $25 _____
Joint Membership $40 _____
Student Membership $5 _____

Make Checks Payable to the Ohio Classical Conference

Membership Forms Can Also be Downloaded at:

<http://www.xavier.edu/OCC/membership.cfm>

The Ohio Classical Conference

The Ohio Classical Conference is a professional organization of College and University Professors and Secondary Teachers of the Classics in the State of Ohio. Its purpose is to promote Classical Language learning at all educational levels in the state of Ohio. The Ohio Classical Conference seeks to promote the common professional interests of all its members, and each year holds its annual meeting. The Ohio Classical Conference publishes its own journal, Humanitas, and seeks to promote cooperation and communication between college and university professors and secondary school teachers of the Classics.

The Ohio Classical Conference

www.xavier.edu/OCC

I am a Secondary School Teacher of Latin or Greek – Why Should I Join the Ohio Classical Conference?

Membership in the Ohio Classical Conferences offers many benefits to secondary school teachers:

- ❖ A subscription to Humanitas, the journal of the OCC.
- ❖ Both you and your students will be eligible for OCC Scholarships.
- ❖ Your program will be eligible to win the Hildesheim Vase Award, which recognizes the outstanding Secondary Classics Program in the State of Ohio.
- ❖ The OCC maintains an affiliation with OFLA, the largest foreign language association in the state of Ohio. Through this connection, the OCC can voice concerns affecting Classics programs at the Secondary Level to the Ohio Department of Education.
- ❖ The OCC will take the appropriate action if any Secondary Program in the state of Ohio is threatened with elimination.
- ❖ The annual meeting provides...
 -presentations and workshops
 -an opportunity to present your own ideas and research
 -discussion with colleagues

I am a Professor or Instructor of the Classics at a University or College in Ohio – Why Should I Join the Ohio Classical Conference?

Membership in the Ohio Classical Conferences offers many benefits to University or College Professors:

- ❖ A subscription to Humanitas, the journal of the OCC.
- ❖ Both you and your students will be eligible for OCC Scholarships.
- ❖ Your program will be eligible to win the OCC College Classics Award, which is awarded to the outstanding University Classics Program in the State of Ohio.
- ❖ The OCC offers you a chance to establish connections with Secondary Teachers of the Classics, who can be a potential resource for recruiting students for your Classics Program.
- ❖ The annual OCC meeting provides...
 -presentations and workshops
 -an opportunity to present your own research
 -an opportunity for your undergraduate or graduate students to present their own research
 -discussion with colleagues

Scholarships Offered by the Ohio Classical Conference

- ❖ The Charles T. Murphy Scholarship For Foreign Study For Ohio Teachers of Classics
- ❖ Self-Organized Travel Scholarship for Teachers With Students of the Classics
- ❖ Prospective Latin Teacher Scholarship
- ❖ Scholarship for the Study of Latin or Greek in a University in the United States.

For more information on please visit the OCC Webpage:

www.xavier.edu/OCC/scholarships.cfm

Awards Offered By the Ohio Classical Conference

- ❖ The Hildesheim Vase Award recognizing the outstanding Secondary Classics Program.
- ❖ The OCC College Classics Award, recognizing the outstanding university Classics Program in the state of Ohio.

For more information, please visit the OCC Webpage:

www.xavier.edu/OCC/awards.cfm