

Nominations are now being accepted for the Paul L. O' Connor, S.J. Scholarship and the Thomas G. Savage, S.J. Scholarship.

The O' Connor Scholarship is awarded to a full-time student currently in the junior class and will be worth $5,500, applied to the winner's tuition for his/her senior year. It is awarded by the Financial Aid and Scholarship Committee in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and contributions, both academic and extracurricular, to Xavier. Students from all three colleges are eligible, provided they plan to be full-time students for the entire 2011-12 academic year.

Two Savage Scholarships, worth $9,000 each, will be awarded to two full-time students who are currently sophomores or juniors. Recipients will be selected for their dedication to and excellence in the humanities. Additional information is available on the application form.

Nominations for the O' Connor and Savage Scholarships are made only through academic departments and the application form is available only through the departmental chair of the student's major. The deadline is April 4, 2011. For more information, students should consult the departmental chair or director for their major.
