QUÉBEC / MONTREAL

Instructor: Dr. K. Tiro, Professor of History

This course serves as an introduction to the culture and history of Québec, the French-speaking province of Canada. With a population of eight million, and a high degree of social and economic dynamism, Québec is one of the world’s most important francophone regions. Despite being surrounded by Anglophones on three sides, French culture remains vibrant in this corner of North America.

Students can follow three tracks to earn credit:

Missions and Native Peoples (3 cr.):
a semester-long course that explores the Jesuits’ 17th-century engagement with American Indians. Satisfies Diversity Curriculum Requirement

New France (1 cr.): a one-week course that focuses on the history of France’s North American colony in the St. Lawrence Valley, with particular attention to the important roles of Native Americans. Satisfies Diversity Curriculum Requirement

L’Amérique française (in French, 1 cr.): a one-week course that introduces students to the vibrant francophone culture of contemporary Québec.

Tentative cost: $1400
Includes airfare and accommodations. Excludes some meals.
