

MARKETING PROGRAM LEADER / WOMEN'S ISSUES

Are you motivated to make a difference by championing a greater understanding of women's issues?

Seeking Marketing Campaign Leadership for new organization to introduce an exciting new women's empowerment program to a national audience. Will develop a well conceived and thorough marketing campaign for a women's theme focused organization. Experiences should provide a solid foundation and intuition into the most intimate personal thoughts, issues, and emotions of today's mature women. High skill level sought in creativity, promotions, and public relations. Career experience may include brand management marketing, field of psychology, nursing, or social work organizations. Will work with successful entrepreneur on an initial 20 hour per week basis.

Location: Cincinnati, Ohio

Compensation: Compensation and schedule negotiable

Reply to: amber.minch@kcdg-re.com