THE PROGRAM

The Williams College of Business (WCB) is nationally recognized for its outstanding educational experiences and the success of its students and faculty. The WCB is among only 450 business schools worldwide to be accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), an international organization. Only 15 percent of business schools worldwide achieve this distinction. In 2010-11, the WCB was ranked:

- 11th in the U.S. in Entrepreneurship, undergraduate programs, by Entrepreneur Magazine
- 10th in the U.S. in Ethics, undergraduate programs, Bloomberg BusinessWeek

In August 2010, the WCB moved into a new four-floor building featuring technologically advanced classrooms, and centers for trading, data-mining and ethics, plus scrolling stock tickers and Bloomberg financial database terminals. The facility, called Stephen & Dolores Smith Hall, is designed to foster innovation and collaboration among students, faculty and a strong business community throughout Greater Cincinnati, home to three Fortune 100 companies, nine Fortune 500 companies and 15 Fortune 1000 companies.

WCB faculty members are PhDs, MBAs or CPAs who have graduated from distinguished institutions around the nation. Many WCB faculty members are actively involved with regional professional organizations, including the American Marketing Association, the World Trade Association and others. Those faculty members who have worked in the business community or who continue to serve as consultants to the Cincinnati business community are able to bring their firsthand knowledge and experience into the classroom.

In addition to traditional studies, business students at Xavier:

- Take advantage of hundreds of opportunities for paid and unpaid internships throughout greater Cincinnati and nationally. Cincinnati is headquarters to such major companies as Duke Energy, The Kroger Co., Chiquita Brands International, Cincinnati Milacron, Procter & Gamble Co. and Western-Southern Financial.
- Get matched with an executive mentor, who works with the student to provide professional guidance, networking support and career connections. Xavier is one of the first schools in the nation to offer this type of mentor program.
- Study or work abroad, choosing from many program options in Europe and Asia, including WCB’s summer study program in Maastricht, The Netherlands, to experience international culture and business.
- Participate in the Business Profession Program, a four-year program that focuses on the full range of skills necessary for success in the workforce and in everyday life.
- Benefit from unparalleled career development services including job search, résumé referral, eRecruiting and on-campus interviews, a job hotline and an annual employment fair.

BUSINESS SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Business students who are in the University Scholars program may elect to participate in the Business Scholars Program. The program provides advanced coursework in economics, finance, management and business law. (The University Scholars program offers honors-level study in the University Core Curriculum. Students choose a major but benefit from intensified study at all levels.)

Like the University Scholars program, Business Scholars take specific classes, designated as honors sections, in the business curriculum. These sections fulfill classes required of all business majors. Honors courses are smaller in size and focus more attention on in-depth analysis, critical thinking, discussion and writing. Business scholars follow the same curriculum guidelines as all other University Scholars. Beyond that, business scholars must take four business courses at the honors level. Students who complete the business honors curriculum will be recognized at Commencement for their achievement.
