Xavier University cannot assume any liability for loss or damage, however caused. Submission of an entry to the exhibition and/or the signature of the artist on the entry form provided constitutes agreement by the artist to all the terms and conditions listed.

Sales will be encouraged. A 25% commission will be charged on all works sold. Your entry grants the Xavier University Art Gallery permission to photograph/publish entries for promotional or educational purposes.

JUROR

Cynthia Amnéus is the Chief Curator and Curator of Fashion Arts and Textiles at the Cincinnati Art Museum. She received her B.A. from Edgecliff College of Xavier University and her M.A. from Illinois State University in textiles and fibers.

In her 25-year career, she has curated diverse exhibitions and published both exhibition-related catalogs and a wide range of articles. Recent self-organized exhibitions include Wedded Perfection: Two Centuries of Wedding Gowns (2010) and Art Deco: Fashion and Design in the Jazz Age (2011) – a cross media exhibition drawn from the permanent collection. Traveling exhibitions include High Style: 20th c. Masterworks from the Brooklyn Museum Costume Collection (2015), organized by the Metropolitan Museum of Art; Iris van Herpen: Transforming Fashion, originated by the High Museum; and The Fabric of India, from the Victoria & Albert Museum, London. She is currently working on an exhibition of 1960s and 1970s jewelry with accompanying catalog. Amnéus has also guest curated exhibitions at The Textile Museum, Washington DC and the Crow Collection of Asian Art in Dallas, Texas.
