Advising for Summer and Fall 2023

"Advising season is about so much more than selecting classes for the next term! When you meet with your advisor this month, I would encourage you to bring your thoughts and questions about your overall academic plan at Xavier.

- Thinking about adding a minor or second major?
- Considering study abroad next summer?
- What major-level courses, especially electives, will be available next year, not just in fall?

Your advisor is here to help you think through your entire Xavier academic experience. If they aren't able to answer a specific question, they can point you in the right direction."

*Jen Droege, Assistant Dean
College of Arts and Sciences*

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR ADVISING

- If you have not heard from your advisor by March 20, please reach out to them to make an appointment.
- Look up holds on your account and resolve them before scheduling. Even if you have holds, you should still schedule a meeting with your advisor so you can register as soon as the holds are cleared.
- Be sure to double check the dates of the classes that you are registering for to ensure that the dates work with your summer plans.
- Remember--You have three attempts to pass a class, including failing grades and withdrawals. Be aware and talk to your advisor.
