Renee Barnett Named Outstanding Catholic Educator At 2018 Excellence in Education Awards

The 2018 Excellence in Education Awards took place on February 13th at the Cintas Center. Renee Barnett of St. James the Greater School was honored as the Catholic Teacher of the Year. Shown are Archdiocese Superintendent Susie Gibbons, XUCCE Executive Director Michael Flick, and Catholic Teacher of the Year Renee Barnett. Visit www.xavier.edu/xceed/c3

The United Way Campaign

XUCCE coordinates Xavier University's United Way campaign. United Way transforms individual lives bringing long-lasting, systemic change to tough issues, like family financial stability and academic success. Fr. Michael Graham appointed XUCCE Executive Director Michael Flick and Administrative Assistant Nancy Sampson campus Co-Chairs for this worthy annual cause that meshes well with the Center’s ideals.

A friendly competition was established between campus divisions to encourage participation. The division of Enrollment Management and Student Services won the 2017 competition. The photo shows Vice President for Enrollment Management Aaron Meis accepting the award from President Graham.

Ann Buengen Catholic Speaker Series
The Ann Buengen Catholic Speaker Series was held on November 2, 2017. National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) President Thomas Burnford started the program and introduced NCEA Senior Consultant Heather Gossart who delivered the address: Lead, Learn, Proclaim, Called by Name. The 2018 program will be held on October 10, 2018 with speaker Michele Rigby Assad.

Partnering With Xavier’s History Department
XUCCE has partnered with Xavier University’s History Department to offer the Advanced US History Teachers’ Institute. The Institute is made possible by a generous gift which underwrites the cost and provides an opportunity for Catholic high school history teachers (especially those teaching AP US History) to meet, collaborate, and learn with other teachers, History Department faculty, and university librarians. It’s About Relationship Building
XUCCE has assisted the following agencies that contribute to our Catholic community. They include: Friar’s Club, Children’s Inc/Leadership Scholars, Boys Hope / Girls Hope, Stepping Stones, Empowering Families, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital, and RAAC (Regional Autism Advisory Council).

Center is Represented at the 2018 Catholic Schools Mass at St. Peter in Chains Cathedral
Catholic colleges and universities joined the 80 Catholic elementary and secondary schools in the southern half of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati for a celebration of Catholic Schools Week. Kevin Sawall and Karen Schroeder carried Xavier’s banner in the school procession preceding the mass concelebrated by Archbishop Schnurr.

NCEA 2018 Convention & Expo
The Archdiocese of Cincinnati hosted the 2018 National Catholic Educational Association national convention at the Duke Energy Convention Center April 3 - 5. XUCCE coordinated Xavier volunteers to help with the delegates to the conference and partnered with Xavier’s School of Education and Graduate School to sponsor a booth in the exhibit hall.

Initiative for Catholic Schools Professional Learning Communities Program
The Initiative for Catholic Schools continues to be XUCCE’s signature program. In 2009 the year long professional development topic changed to transforming the Catholic school into a Professional Learning Community. This popular program has served 53 Catholic schools and 337 educators from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and the Diocese of Covington. Visit www.xavier.edu/xucce/ics.pdf

From Visioning and Strategic Planning
Mission
Rooted in the Catholic tradition, the Xavier University Center for Catholic Education strengthens Catholic education through diocesan and school relationships designed to invigorate and transform Catholic schools.

Vision
Assisting Catholic schools in promoting faith formation, academic excellence, and individual growth rooted in the gospel message of Jesus Christ. In short: A vision of greatness for Catholic schools. Visit www.xavier.edu/xucce/sp.pdf
