

Graduate Certificate in the American Founding and Constitution

ONLINE INFORMATION SESSION

Tuesday, Oct. 14, 2025

4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Join Dr. Mack Mariani for an information session about this new graduate certificate offered at Xavier University.

Advance your understanding of America's founding and constitutional principles by this interdisciplinary exploration of legal, philosophical, political, and historical foundations of the United States. Through discussion-based courses focused on primary sources, historical documents, and foundational debates, you will develop a deep and advanced understanding of both the American Founding and Constitution, examining their origins, evolution, and lasting impact on governance, law and civic life.

Earn your graduate certificate in four, 100% online courses.

Scholarship funding is available.
