Applications must include:
• Application cover sheet, which can be picked up at the Brueggeman Center or emailed by contacting the Center.
• Official transcripts.
• A two-page statement describing your interest in being a Fellow and the type of research you would conduct, including ideas for your international travel.
• Name, email and telephone number of Xavier Faculty member who can be contacted for reference.
• Name, email and telephone number of Xavier Faculty member who has agreed to be a reference, and serve as a project mentor, in addition to the Faculty Director of the Brueggeman Center.

Send applications to the Brueggeman Center by March 15. Award notifications will be made the week of April 5.

For application forms and information, contact the Brueggeman Center at 513-745-3922 or cummins@xavier.edu.

To learn more about the Brueggeman Center, visit www.xavier.edu/dialogue.