

Moriah Pie is a family owned pizza restaurant in Norwood, Ohio. Owned and operated by Erin and Robert Lockridge, Moriah Pie serves all who walk in their doors. Erin and Robert grow or harvest all the ingredients that go into making each meal they serve. Consequently Moriah Pie only opens its doors Friday nights. Erin and Robert not only serve delicious pizza, but depending on what they are able to grow, they also serve salad, soup, and a variety of desserts. As much as possible, the ingredients, supplies, and workers come from the Norwood community. The magic of Moriah Pie is that they have no set prices. Payment is left up to the customer's discretion, which allows anyone to have a hot meal, no matter his or her circumstances. Stop in to Moriah Pie for delectable pizza and pie on any Friday night. The loving atmosphere and community feeling will keep you coming back each Friday, to give thanks for the gifts God has provided on this earth.

what is moriah pie