

Interviewer's Reflection

My name is Matthew Heyl. I am a history major, in the class of 2016. Working with Fr. Ben Urmston was a humbling experience. It was an incredible opportunity to learn about his life and role on Xavier's campus. I learned multiple ways to get more involved in order to work for peace and justice. As a future history teacher, Fr. Ben's work and life will be an inspiration to educate others as he has done.
