

Core Competencies

Incorporating the mission, vision and values of Xavier University into one's performance (see also: Values Wheel)

Being a role model of professionalism, efficiency and effectiveness in daily work performance

Working with others in a positive manner to achieve organizational objectives

Effectively organizing and carrying out work processes to achieve individual and organizational goals

Ensuring clarity and understanding for the intended audience through timely, respectful, appropriate, clear written or oral communications

Developing and supporting processes that bring about positive change in support of University goals