Hello, colleagues.

I continually being updated with new information and resources.

To support you in this endeavor, the training and resources being developed by the CTE and ID&T have developed several support resources to assist faculty and staff. Below are highlights on how to get the most out of your class meetings, this is the session for you!

If you are teaching in the second half of the summer and plan to use remote teaching methods such as synchronous Zoom sessions, a series of webinars are being developed to start in early June. Look for upcoming webinars, one on grading in Canvas, one on using the Canvas Remote Teaching Template, and a new webinar on using advanced multiple features. If you have questions about using Canvas, activating the Zoom integration in your Canvas courses or using it to schedule meetings, or for assistance with using other technology and platforms, you can contact Paul Weber at weberp@xavier.edu or Amy Gardner at gardena3@xavier.edu. Amy can also be reached by phone at 513-635-4162.

Webinar: Grading and Feedback in Canvas

Date: June 17, 1:30—3:00 p.m.

Webinar: Using the Canvas Remote Teaching Template

Date: June 25, 1:30—3:00 p.m.

Webinar: Utilizing the Canvas Remote Teaching Template

Date: May 12, 2:00—3:00 p.m.

These weeklong workshops will guide you through the process of planning for the summer and fall, I suggest that we reflect on what we have learned from remote teaching that will enable us to fulfill Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission? How can the connections between Xavier University’s mission?