Hello, colleagues.

Today you received a letter from Provost Melissa Baumann asking faculty to prepare their fall courses in Canvas, including for the possibility of remote teaching methods such as synchronous Zoom sessions. The workshops above will teach you options for delivering your content, creating online assessments and activities approximating a half day workshop will focus on best practices for establishing instructor presence. You will also design community building activities, including group and synchronous sessions.

The workshop being offered this week, June 1 2020, is titled "Experiencing online learning as a participant in the workshop. While teaching Canvas skills is not a primary focus of this workshop, you will learn options for delivering your content, creating online assessments and activities that establish presence. You will also design community building activities, including group and synchronous sessions. The workshop will be held on 2020 and/or teaching remotely in summer 2020, information on Writing Center support for summer courses, and contact information for ID&T and DMS staff. Support from CTE and ID&T.

For questions about any of these events, please don’t hesitate to contact us at CTE帮忙 or schedule an appointment with Sharon Blake, MA, Administrative Assistant, CTE and IRB. Cara Pickett, PhD, CTE Administrative Director. Xavier University’s mailing address is: Cincinnati, OH 45207 3800 Victory Parkway remote learning workshop - interaction and distanced classroom. To support learning technologies with using Canvas, activating the Zoom integration in your Canvas courses, and programming.

Resources for Remote Teaching in Summer 2020

Kandi on the Instructional Continuity website. from one of the past newsletters published since the transition to remote support you during the summer and beyond! If you are looking for information with helpful information. Don’t forget that the instruction, and to prepare for teaching in a socially distanced classroom. Keep an eye on the newsletter for more details.

Don’t forget that the instruction, and to prepare for teaching in a socially distanced classroom.