INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK – CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

The Center for International Education would like to invite the Xavier community to participate in International Education Week (IEW) 2015. IEW is Monday, November 16th through Friday, November 20th. Each year, Xavier participates in IEW through different programs, presentations, and exhibitions.

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs states:

> "International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of International Education and exchange worldwide. This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Education is part of our efforts to promote programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences in the United States."

We would like to invite your office or department to partake in this week in a way that is meaningful for you and the students with whom you work. The form that your participation takes is totally up to you. Attached is last year’s schedule for ideas.

If you have any events already scheduled during the week of November 16-20 that are related to any international themes, please let us know. We will publicize these events in the 2015 IEW calendar. And if you don’t have an international event planned yet, we invite you to consider hosting an event during the week.

Our hope is to increase dialogue and awareness of different issues around the world to the Xavier community.

If you are interested in participating in this week, please scan and email the attached submission form to LeeAnn Scherbauer, scherbauerl@xavier.edu by Monday, October 26. The Center for International Education will publicize all programs submitted by this date.

IEW INTERNATIONAL FACULTY & STAFF SOCIAL

Have you travelled around the world and caught the travel-bug? Are you from another country or have you lived in another country? Or, are you just simply interested in meeting colleagues from around the world? Come meet and connect with fellow international faculty and staff members on-campus! Join the Center for International Education during International Education Week for our first International Faculty & Staff Social on Thursday, November 19th from 3-5pm in the CIE (GSC 230). If interested in coming or joining this group, please RSVP to international@xavier.edu by Friday, November 11th.
WELCOME TSVETY KARAIVANOVA
Please help us welcome Ms. Tsvety (Tvetoslava) Karaivanova to Xavier University. Tsvety joins the CIE as our new International Student Advisor. Stop by the CIE and introduce yourself to Tsvety and share with her your favorite thing about Xavier! Read more about Tsvety here.

JOIN US IN SMITH HALL FOR INTERNATIONAL COFFEE HOUR TODAY
This afternoon the Williams College of Business hosts International Coffee Hour. Please join us in the lobby of Smith Hall from 3:30-4:30pm for a quick afternoon pick-me-up. We hope to see you there!

CRITICAL LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) program is open to American undergraduate and graduate students to study fourteen critical foreign languages. It is a fully-funded program with the goal of broadening the base of Americans studying and mastering critical languages and to build relationships between the people of the United States and other countries. Most languages in the CLS program do not have any required language prerequisites. The application is available at http://www.clscholarship.org and due on November 23, 2015 by 7:59 pm EST. For news, updates and more information about the CLS Program, check out the CLS website. Please share this opportunity with students who may be interested.

International Opportunities for Faculty

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO – FACULTY FELLOWSHIPS
Faculty from partner institutions are warmly invited to apply for the Faculty Fellows Program at the Beijing Center for Chinese Studies in Beijing, China and the John Felice Rome Center in Rome, Italy.

These fellowships are designed to provide opportunity for currently non-tenured faculty to broaden their research and scholarship activities in China or Italy; foster a deeper connection with the Global Centers; interact with professors and research colleagues in country; and contribute to the student learning experience on-site.

The award includes international travel, private on-campus housing for a month, a workspace, and a partial meal stipend. For more information, please consult the individual fellowship descriptions. The application deadline is November 1, 2015.

USAC VISITING PROFESSOR APPLICATION NOW AVAILABLE
Teach abroad with USAC during 2017-2018. Professors from University Studies Abroad Consortium (USAC) Affiliate Universities have the unique opportunity to support the USAC mission and internationalize their home universities by teaching abroad. Visiting Professors establish contacts with foreign colleagues, enhance their own foreign language acquisition, strengthen and support international education and study abroad on campus, diversify course curriculum, and develop international relationships for research and other purposes. The application is due December 1, 2015. Please contact the CIE at international@xavier.edu for access to the application.
