FACULTY HONORS
Dr. France Weaver gave two presentations at the Gerontological Society of America’s annual scientific conference in Boston MA on November 14-16, 2018. She presented: 1) “Differential Effects of States’ Medicaid HCBS Strategies on Healthcare Expenditures” and 2) “The Role of Health Status at Shaping Inequalities in Well-Being of the Baby Boomers and Older Persons.”

Dr. Eddie Hooker recently received the “Above and Beyond in Infection Control” Award from the C diff Foundation at the Sixth International C diff Awareness Conference and Health Expo held in Philadelphia PA on November 9, 2018. Eddie’s presentation centered on the effect and presence of Clostridium difficile (C diff) spores and how a clean environment is critical in their containment to prevent infections from person-to-person. Launderable hospital mattress covers can have a measurable effect to improve this.
