VISIT BY CAHME PRESIDENT (CAHME = Commission on the Accreditation of Health Management Education)

On Thursday, February 21, 2019, Xavier MHSA students, faculty, and staff enjoyed the opportunity to be with CAHME President, Dr. Anthony Stanowski, who made an informal visit. CAHME’s is the accreditation body for MHSA and Xavier MHSA has been continuously accredited since this was first possible in 1968. We currently hold the maximum seven-year accreditation. Anthony’s schedule for the day included:

- Conversations with Dr. Steve Herbert, Dean of the Graduate School, Dr. Cindy Geer, Associate Dean of the College of Professional Sciences, and Roger Bosse, Assistant Dean of Graduate Services
- Visits to Dr. Lin Guo’s HESA 523 “CQI Techniques in Healthcare Management” class session and to Dr. France Weaver’s HESA 575 “Health Economics” class session
- Conversation Hour with the MHSA Class of 2020 (second year students) and with the MHSA Class of 2021 (first year students)
- Informal lunch with students, faculty, and MHSA staff
- Wrap-up session about CAHME, accreditation, and why standards for graduate health services administration education
- Dr. Stanowski also met with Sister Nancy about a variety of topics, including how to ensure that HSA programs are teaching for the future in healthcare.
