

ELECTED OFFICERS FOR THE FIRST YEAR MHSA CLASS OF 2022

Before the fall 2019 semester ended, the first-year MHSA students (Class of 2022) engaged with the second-year students about the duties and roles of the class officer positions. We wait until the end of the first semester to hold class elections in order to allow for the incoming students to get acquainted and have opportunities to work together. Elected to serve their class are:

Clockwise from left: Cameron Stockdale, President; Jake Nelson, Community Service Liaison; Ryan DePietro, Health Administration Student Professional Society (HASPS) Co-Chair; Doug Nasby, Health Administration Student Professional Society (HASPS) Co-Chair; Kelsey O’Sullivan, Community Service Liaison; Alex Moran, Treasurer

INTERIM DEAN FOR THE COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL SCIENCES (The College of our HSA Department)

It’s a pleasure to introduce Dr. Linda Schoenstedt, professor of Sport Management and Marketing, who is serving as the Interim Dean of the College of Professional Sciences from 2019-2020.

Linda has been at Xavier since 2010 and has much experience in sport coaching at the University of Iowa, Wright State University, Montana Tech, and Montana State-Northern. Her involvement in the sport industry includes coach, athletic director, facility manager, and volunteer. In 1995 she was named Big Ten Volleyball Coach of the Year and in 1991 she was named Wright State Coach of the Year. Linda served as Xavier’s faculty leader in 2018-2019.

She has a doctorate from Montana State University, a master’s from the University of Montana, and a bachelor’s from Creighton University.

Linda continues to be helpful and supportive with HSA matters.
