

COL (R) John Macel Jr.
Class of 1968
Enshrinement 2016

John Macel was a varsity Basketball Athlete and ROTC standout while at XU. He continued his Service through a distinguished military career and an outstanding civilian career as well. He is a true Selfless Servant with multiple volunteer organizations. He has served in some of the highest levels of the military and in civilian leadership. He would be a fantastic representative for the XU ROTC HoF.

Business Development Executive: Gulf Supplies & Commercial Services

John A. Macel, Jr. joined GSCS following a twenty-six-year career of active duty in the U.S. Army and a fifteen-year career with ITT Industries as VP for International Business Development. In his current position he coordinates all of GSCS's CONUS operations and Business Development activities.

John served as a Colonel in the U.S. Army with specialties in Field Artillery and as a Middle East Foreign Area Officer. His final assignments of military service were with U.S. Central Command, where he served as Chief of the Office of Military Cooperation (OMC) Kuwait immediately following Desert Storm, and as Deputy Director J4/7 CENTCOM as Chief of Security Assistance.

As VP for International Business Development at ITT, John managed all elements of Capture Management for International pursuits and also served as the as the Director of Operational Excellence, he was a member of the Executive Leadership Team responsible for providing the direction and oversight to support the success of operational performance - specifically Operational Excellence aligned to customer priorities.

John is a 1968 graduate of Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio with a degree in Economics and where he was Captain of the varsity basketball team. He has a master's degree in Middle Eastern Affairs from Kansas University, and graduate work at the University of Chicago.

He and his wife, Patty, reside in St. Petersburg, Florida and have two daughters: Amiee and Amanda.