

AFMIX Capstone Reflection – A Video Rap

Mary Ann Grimsley, Danielle Reisman, Jojo Santos, Allen Zernich

Lyrics by Allen Zernich to the tune of the Fresh Prince of Bel-Air

Now, all our walks start here in the city
On the campus of Xavier University
So, we'd like to take a second
To show right here
How work and mission come alive among all our peers.

In, our days at AFMIX we studied and read
How Ignatius Loyola laid our path ahead.
All listenin and prayin as one big crowd
Tryin just to show more than b-ball makes us proud.

So this Jesuit guy
Came up with some good
And lead us in this spiritual exercise
We had four great semesters to talk and share
Joe said 'You're gonna love it, you'll come to care!'

We talked as one and then came to hear
The importance of mission begins at the core.
If anything we can say our pedagogy here,
It's awesome, it's great 'Yo homes, it's Xavier!'

We arrived each day about twelve
And greeted our friends 'Yo homes, how ya doin?'
Looked at each other
And we're finally here
AFMIX graduates at our home – Xavier!
