

Long Pause: Winter Break

I ask to remember graces of the past 13 weeks and to say “Thank you’

List some of the graces received over the first 13 weeks:

Reading

Brackley – Exam week / Christmas break – No new readings

Creighton – “Review” / Ignatian Repetition pp. 153-159

Suggestions

Ignatian repetition invites us to return to “places” where we have found “fruit.” Reviewing the one-pagers and your journaling can help this process.

Return to and review the “Two Standards” / “Two Different Ways of Desiring” in Week 13; this is the pivotal point of the Exercises.

Watch Woody Allen’s film Crimes and Misdemeanors (possibly with someone from our group?).
