I do not have a roommate in mind and will use My College Roomie (MCR) to find a match.

Complete housing application

Complete profile in My College Roomie

Complete MCR roommate questionnaire

Search for potential matches either in the "My Matches" section

Send friend requests to potential matches to open lines of communication

Once you have found a good match, request as roommate by clicking "Request Roommate" button

Roommate must accept roommate request to officially be paired

Start to talk through different housing options and preferences; be ready with a Plan A, B, and C!

I already have a roommate in mind.

Complete profile in My College Roomie

Complete MCR roommate questionnaire

Search for intended roommate by last name and make friend request

Talk through the differences in your roommate questionnaire to make sure this is still a good fit

Request as roommate by clicking "Request Roommate" button under their name in MCR

I was not able to find any good matches through the My College Roomie system or my original match fell through.

You are not alone! Plenty of students prefer to "go random" or be paired with a roommate.

If you are a new student you will be paired with a roommate based on your questionnaire

Log into MCR when prompted to see your new roommate!

Reach out to your new roommate to start to get to know them.
