Through my years of dedication and experience on SGA, I have committed myself to working tirelessly in service of the Xavier student body. As Vice President, I would love the opportunity to build on the work I have started to improve the student experience for everyone at the school. Being elevated to such a prominent position of responsibility would allow me to advocate on behalf of my peers to the administration on a much more regular basis. I would be honored to be elected Vice President and am looking forward to following through on the positive vision that I have for the Xavier community.
