Working with the state senator and state attorney back at home allowed me to gain insight into government. Thus, allowing me to provide a refreshing perspective on problems that we may encounter as as a senate. Problems like being progressive and accepting in divisive times, being able to foster growth, development, and understanding of others in jarring times; navigating difficult conversations to foster a more empathetic and informed community; remaining true to the Jesuit values. Therefore, meeting the needs of a larger population of Xavier students.
