"Take a step outside of
your comfort
zone, you
never know
where it may lead you."*

Greetings to McKenzie Plitzuweit!

McKenzie is a Senior and majors in Digital Media, Public Relations, Advertising.

McKenzie has worked at the Gallagher Student Center for 3 years, her Senior year in the Operations Supervisor position. In this position McKenzie explains, "I oversee the Building Managers and Welcome Desk Attendants and focus on scheduling of all the employees. I assist in the background operations of the events throughout the building, and help to hire, train, and support our staff."

She talks about the skills she has learned and developed, "I would say that my communication and people skills have improved tremendously. There might be bumps throughout events or with groups of people and working to make sure that we can assist in any way possible and communicating is important. I have created relationships with coworkers and understand the importance of developing a positive work culture. In addition, my time management skills have improved through balancing my role, assisting with events, and helping our employees with any concerns or questions that they might have."

McKenzie also mentions her most proud accomplishment in this role, "The positive work culture that has been developed and the relationships that both myself and my coworkers have with each other."

Congratulations McKenzie for being nominated for the 2025 Student Employee of the Year!
