

TRIP TO ISRAEL

XAVIER UNIVERSITY

December 26, 2016- January 7, 2017

The Pontifical Biblical Institute in Jerusalem has invited a select group of Xavier students to spend two weeks in the Holy Land. The trip will retrace the life of Jesus and the development of Christianity. Through visits to archaeological sites in Jerusalem, the Galilee, Bethlehem, and the Judean Desert, students will gain first-hand experience of the geography, climate and physical settings that shaped the narrative of the New Testament gospels—and Second Temple Judaism more broadly.

The trip includes airfare, lodging, meals, transportation, entry fees and 3 credit hours for Philosophy 396. The price for the trip is $4000.
