TOGETHER WE CAN SOLVE HUNGER

GUEST SPEAKER
CLAIRE BABINEAUX-FONTENOT CEO, Feeding America

Louisiana native, Claire Babineaux-Fontenot is CEO of Feeding America, a nationwide network of 200 food banks and 60,000 food pantries and meals programs that provide food and improve food security for people facing hunger. Previously, Claire served 13 years on Walmart's leadership team, most recently as executive vice president and global treasurer. She was partner-in-charge of the Baton Rouge office and tax practice leader for Adams and Reese LLP, dispute resolution practice group leader for the southwest region at PwC, and an assistant secretary for the Office of Legal Affairs for the State of Louisiana.

Claire has served on numerous boards including the Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children, the board of directors and audit committee for the Thurgood Marshall College Fund, and the board of trustees and finance and audit committee for the National Urban League and the National Association of Black Accountants.
