

SELF-GUIDED WALKING TOUR

Welcome to Xavier University! We are so thrilled you're on campus today to explore everything that Xavier has to offer. Below is tour that coincides with our campus map and will give you a better feel of our campus and family. Enjoy!

WALTER SCHOTT HALL | E6

- This is where your Xavier story begins! Xavier actually started downtown connected to St. Xavier Cathedral and moved to our campus here in the early 1900s. Built in 1969 as a Jesuit Residence and is the tallest building on campus
- Office of Admission & Student Financial Services
- Departments of Modern Languages, Classics, Communication Arts, History
- The words above the entrance to the Admissions Office reflect the heart of the Xavier community

OUR LADY OF PEACE CHAPEL | D5

- Dedicated by the Williams family, moved from their Family Estate in Anderson Township as a gift to the university in 2017
- Open daily 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
- Silent Prayer; No services
- Seats 22 people

EDGECLIFF HALL | D5

- Edgecliff Hall is the home to our Department of Performing Arts and features music technology labs, soundproof practice studios, and Music Center recital halls
- Named in honor of Edgecliff College; a Catholic, Private Women's college that merged with Xavier in 1980

SCHMIDT HALL | D5

- Administration building
- Office of Dr. Colleen Hanycz, our President
- Xavier's first library before being converted into an administrative building in 1967

HINKLE HALL | E5

- Built in 1919, it is the oldest standing building on campus and a ¼ replica of the Francis Xavier family castle in Spain
- Building for faculty offices; Departments of Math, English, Philosophy and Theology

MCDONALD LIBRARY | E5

- Computer Labs, access to printers (1000 sheets a semester), study tables and quiet study areas
- OhioLink is a free service that allows students to request books from other university libraries in Ohio when Xavier University may not have access to said book
- Makerspace available to students
- Connects to the Conaton Learning Commons on two floors

ALTER HALL | E5

- Opened in 1960 as main classroom building
- Renovated and reopened in fall of 2015 to LEED gold standards: sustainable building, irrigation system on the roof, low energy lighting, energy recovery ventilator, recycled materials
- Honors Lounge on the 3rd floor
- Whiteboards or chalkboards cover 3 of the 4 walls in each classroom as well as 2 projector screens
- Mostly for general classes and classes in our core such as Theology, English, Philosophy, Math etc. Core is 48 credits

ALBERS HALL | E4

- Department of Biology is housed here
- 6 teaching labs
- 7 project labs

LOGAN HALL | E4

- Department of Chemistry is housed here
- Chemistry lab rooms, classrooms and faculty offices
- A time capsule was placed within Logan Hall when it was dedicated, to be opened in 2053

LINDNER FAMILY PHYSICS BUILDING | E4

- Department of Physics is housed here
- Astronomy observatory with 8 telescopes
- Foucault Pendulum (proves without the use of stars the earth rotates)

HAILSTONES HALL | F5

- Multimedia classrooms and computer lab
- The Education department and the Graduate Office are located here

BELLARMINE CHAPEL | F4

- Serves as the home parish to hundreds of Catholics in Cincinnati as well as the Xavier community
- The spiritual center of campus
- Sunday Mass 9:00 a.m., 11:30 a.m. & 7:00 p.m.
- Student led Sunday mass during academic year at 4:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.
- Daily masses are also held in the side chapel at 8:00 a.m. & 5:00 p.m. during the week.

GALLAGHER STUDENT CENTER | F3

- Lower Level: Dining options that take X-Cash, Dining Dollars, Performing Arts Theatre and Studio Theatre.
- Level One: Welcome Desk (laptop checkout) and Bookstore (textbooks, school supplies, snacks and convenience store), printing station, and Victory Perk
- Level Two: US Bank, Student Activities Council, Student Government, Center for Diversity and Inclusion, Center for International Education, Student Involvement
- Level Three: Dorothy Day Center for Faith and Justice, Student Affairs and Enrichment, Title IX office, Interfaith Community Engagement, Clock Tower Lounge, Commuter Lounge.

RESIDENT HALLS

BROCKMAN HALL | F2

- First-year students only
- Co-ed separated by floor
- Community style living, shared bathrooms
- Bathrooms cleaned every day by physical plant staff
- All resident halls have laundry facilities, full kitchens, study lounges, and recreation room.

BUENGER RESIDENCE HALL | G2

- First-year and sophomore, athletes and honors students priority residence hall, co-ed by suite
- Most suites have 2 double occupancy bedrooms
- Some suites have 3 double occupancy bedrooms and a few have 3 or 4 single occupancy bedrooms
- Suites have a furnished common area, 1 and 1/2 bathrooms and a kitchenette area with microwave/refrigerator combination and sink
- All resident halls have laundry facilities, full kitchens, study lounges, and recreation room.

KUHLMAN RESIDENCE HALL | G3

- First-year and sophomore students, co-ed by wing and floor
- 2 double occupancy bedrooms connected by bathroom in the middle
- All resident halls have laundry facilities, full kitchens, study lounges, and recreation room.

HUSMAN RESIDENCE HALL | G4

- First-year students, co-ed by wing
- 2 double occupancy bedrooms connected by bathroom in the middle
- Renovated summer 2015
- All resident halls have laundry facilities, full kitchens, study lounges, and recreation room.

JUSTICE HALL | G5

- Built in 2011
- Above the Hoff dining commons
- Sophomore students and older- suite style with 4-8 students in each rooming group
- Suite style living 3-4 double occupancy bedrooms
- All resident halls have laundry facilities, full kitchens, study lounges, and recreation room.

CINTAS CENTER | H3

- Opened in 2000
- 10,224 seats
- Classroom and lounge areas
- Student tickets are included in tuition
- Hosts Xavier men's and women's basketball games, and women's volleyball games
- Banquet and event rooms located here

COHEN CENTER | J1

- Department of Art and the Xavier University Art Gallery
- Departments of Criminal Justice, Social Work, Occupational Therapy, Health Services Administration (Grad), and some education classes
- Nursing faculty offices located here

FLYNN HALL | I4

- Home to Xavier University Police Department
- The staff of professional officers is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year
- Our blue assistance light system, located in various places on campus, connects students in an emergency situation to the police station to talk to a respondent

HEALTH UNITED BUILDING (HUB) | J5

- Opened in 2019 to LEED Gold Standards
- Partnered with Tri-Health
- Student Health Center
- Home to Health Services (Nursing, OT, Exercise Science) with state-of-the-art simulation labs as well as classrooms and 12 private study rooms
- Recreation Center with 4 lane pool, 3 group fitness studios, and 3 full-size multi purpose courts
- On-campus pharmacy

HOFF DINING COMMONS | G5

- Open 7 a.m.-9 p.m. on weekdays and 8 a.m.-8 p.m. on weekends
- Features five kitchens in an all-you-care-to-eat format, including fresh soups, salads and vegan selections, comfort foods and foods cooked to order, fresh baked breads and desserts, made-to-order deli sandwiches and a stone hearth pizza oven
- Pizza ATM located outside the dining commons, provides medium (12-inch) pizzas in only 3 minutes

SMITH HALL | F6

- Williams College of Business
- 5/3rd Trading Center with Bloomberg terminals
- The largest Bloomberg–equipped facility among universities in the country.
- Four floors that include all undergraduate business, the Graduate School of Business, Professional Development Center, and Corporate Connections
- The D’Artagnan Capital Fund - A student run fund managing and trading real money
- Sedler Family Center for Experiential Learning

CONATON LEARNING COMMONS | E6

- Home for the Office of Academic Assistance
- TRiO, Student Success and Retention
- Career Service Center
- Writing Center, Math and Language Lab on the 4th floor
- Veteran and Military Family Center on the 5th floor
- The Connection Center houses the main desk in the library on the lower floor and includes the Help Desk for technical assistance
- 16 group study rooms with dry erase walls
- Connected to the library

